

The Suttie Group

Supply Chain Manager – Mexico

The Suttie Group is working with a TSX listed mining company focused on precious metals mining and exploration, operating a multi-million ounce gold and silver mine in northern Mexico.

Job description

The successful candidate's main function will be to manage the procurement and warehouse functions. The aim is to negotiate with suppliers and to formulate supply contracts to get the best cost and quality. He/she will manage inventory stock and to ensure timely placement and delivery of non-stock items and will have good connections to resource material from Mexico, North America, Europe, Australia and South Africa.

Requirements:

- A minimum of 5 years experience in Supply Chain Management.
- Worked in a mining, construction or heavy engineering environment, with emphasis on heavy plant.
- Possess excellent knowledge of relevant supply chain software
- Is conversant with cost control systems.
- Have worked with maintenance planners.
- Extensive background in procuring heavy equipment and spares.
- Experience in an open-pit mining environment will be highly regarded.
- Good leadership and motivational skills.
- Good analytical skills.
- Good verbal and written communication skills.
- Fluent English speaker; Spanish is an advantage.

The position will accommodate either married or single status. The local city is big and modern with a warm climate and offers all the facilities of any large North American or European city: shopping malls with major American chain stores; hotels and restaurants, both Mexican and international chains. The city is generally safe and English is widely spoken. There are several good private and international schools.

- Married status includes paid accommodation in the local city's gated community; rotation is 10 days on 4 off, depending on shift rosters. 3 weeks holiday a year.
- Single status rosters are 8 weeks on, 3 weeks off; with occasional R&R breaks in a local city. Paid airfare to and from the point of hire and to and from the local city. Accommodation is paid for during R&R breaks.

The camp offers a canteen, gym and other sporting facilities with comfortable single accommodation.
