

The Suttie Group

Passionate about people, partnerships and performance!

Uniting top level executive mining talent with winning corporate teams!

The Suttie Group represents exceptional, national and international candidates with extensive experience. Most are employed and may not be actively seeking in the marketplace.

Although they are somewhat “invisible” they are open to appropriate opportunities for career growth, a process which we facilitate for both them and our clients.

Please contact us immediately if you have an opportunity for growth within your organization or would like to be kept apprised of opportunities.

Would you give your resume to just anyone? ... our candidates don't either!

Demand for key professionals is returning to 2007 levels! Don't miss out and potentially hold back great projects.

Now is your prime opportunity to explore a talent pool of seasoned and highly skilled professionals. Invest in your corporate feasibility; show your shareholders a solid team of proven, professional talent, ready and able to immediately move your projects forward!

As your corporate Talent Scout...we are passionate about securing the finest players for your executive team. We are performance based, no fees are payable until we place a candidate. Why pay for retained search when you can enjoy superior results with The Suttie Group?

As your Talent Agent... we pitch so you can play to your performance potential at no cost to you. Whether you are looking now or not, we would like to get to know you so when you are ready, we're ready too.
